

Aim Artists

Alexandra Jachno

Manicurist

Daughter of celebrity manicurist, Lisa Jachno, Alexandra Jachno was born to do nails. Growing up on the set, watching her mother manicure some of the biggest names in Hollywood, Alexandra was always immersed in the world of nails. From the age of 6, Alexandra would play beauty parlor imitating her mother by practicing on all of her friends- to one day create a style all her own!

Somewhat of a protégé in the art, at the age of 18 Alexandra became one of the youngest to intern for L’Oreal USA in New York City. A fashion enthusiast, artist and trend watcher, Alexandra used her keen eye to aid in product development. Alexandra currently lives in Los Angeles, she enjoys painting, photography and collecting vintage clothing.