Helen Jeffers Hair & Makeup

Helen has been a make-up and hair artist for over 35 years. She is a native of Dublin, Ireland where she began her make up journey as a skin care expert and aesthetician. She has worked all over the globe and was based in both the U.K and Australia before finally landing in Los Angeles in the early 90's. Her extensive clientele list includes commercial directors, photographers, sports figures and celebrities.

Through her love of skin and creating natural beauty, she became an expert airbrush artist and has been a celebrity spokesperson promoting airbrush systems. She is in high demand for this specialized and cutting edge skill for many years. Her magazine credits include Vogue, Vanity Fair, Marie Claire, and Harpers and Queen and American and British Brides to name a few.

Helen is equipped with a large portfolio of make-up and hairstyles and can work with all skin types.

She brings with her a uniquely Irish sense of humor that enables her to deal with the most difficult and demanding situations with consummate professionalism and ease.
