

Aim Artists

Kate Riney

Wardrobe Stylists

Kate Riney started honing her craft at an early age working exclusively in the fashion industry in exploration of her future career path. Spending a semester in London she interned with at the infamous Liberty's Department store as a visual merchandiser and studied fashion design and photography. Upon returning home to St. Louis, MO., she graduated with a degree in fashion merchandising and graphic design.

She moved to California in 2003 working her way up the coast as a visual merchandiser for Nordstrom then Arden B. corporate styling windows and interiors, setting merchandising standards, and traveling the U.S. opening new stores. Freelancing on the weekends for a fashion magazine she found her true passion and calling in life. She realized it was time to explore new ventures and started a new life in Los Angeles, CA. She is currently a full time freelance Wardrobe Stylist and the Fashion Director of On the Cusp Magazine.