Nelly Recchia

Body Painting + Makeup

Having the Human Body as a canvas is extremely powerful, intense, complex and unique.

This is what French body painter Nelly Recchia's work is about. Multi-Award Winner in Europe makeup and body art competitions, Nelly moved to Los Angeles where she collaborates on Music Videos and Promos for Britney Spears, Madonna, Marilyn Manson and Skinny Puppy, editorials commercials and Fine Art photography.

Nelly's artistry is technical yet emotional, dark and delicate, soft and strong.
